

When Your Cold Catches You Just There

There is No Time to Wait.

It is not a "little thing." It's a deadly thing. It will not "get well by itself" if you let it alone. Whiskey and quinine and such things brace you up for the time, but they don't cure you.

Ask any intelligent doctor why you catch cold so easily. He will say, "Because you are a bit run down." He means that the force which nature placed in your body to keep out disease germs—the resistive force—is weakened. The door is open a little way toward disease.

There is not a gravestone in any cemetery in the world caused by consumption or pneumonia or any lung trouble whatever, which did not start with what you call "Nothing but a cold."

A cold should not be beaten back or drugged over—it should be cured, and the general health should be built up.

ACKER'S ENGLISH REMEDY

should be taken at the first symptoms of cold. It is a tonic for the whole body, a specific for sudden colds, coughs or sore throats. It doesn't matter where the cold is or how it got there, we know that Acker's English Remedy will reach it and cure it. It is sold on a positive guarantee.

NO CURE NO PAY. If you have a cold—no matter how slight—it means something. Take Acker's English Remedy at once. Keep it in the house. If it does not relieve you almost instantly, we will refund you the price paid.

"Acker's English Remedy saved my life. A cough, slight at first, grew constantly worse and I finally had to give up my work in the Knife Factory at Walden. I had frequent bleeding spells. Was examined by local doctors, prominent physicians in New York and at a Medical College. They all pronounced my case hopeless. I began using Acker's English Remedy and a few bottles cured me. I am today a perfectly well man." (Signed) A. H. SIMPSON, Walden, N. Y.

Acker's English Remedy is sold on a positive guarantee that the purchase money will be refunded in case of failure. 25c., 50c., and $1.00 per bottle.

AMUSEMENTS.

"The Two Little Waifs," is one of the most successful ever written and staged by Lincoln J. Carter and will be seen at the Auditorium January 7. It is without doubt one of the strongest and most stirring plays that will be seen at the Auditorium this season. It comes under the personal management of James L. Buford, formerly manager of the Warrent Grand and Glads theatres, Kansas City. The story itself is full of strong heart interest. The villain, in order to win the love of another man's wife, breaks up his home and kidnaps one of the children. The mother is reduced to abject poverty, but in her direst need refuses aid from the man who brought trouble at the door of her home by the base plot. The piece is full of pathos and tears but is not without some good comedy.

THE BRIDGE OF DEATH.

A Whole Railroad Train Falls 75 Feet Into an Abyss.

Nearly 100 Passengers Crushed by the Fall, or Perish in the Flames or Water.
A terrible accident occurred to a train bound west on the Lake Shore road, occurred last Friday evening Dec. 29, 1876. The train consisted of seven passenger coaches and four baggage and express cars. The scene of the accident was a few rods east of the depot at Ashtabula (60 miles from Cleveland) where an iron bridge spanned Ashtabula creek, seventy-five feet above the water. The falling train and bridge smashed the ice in the creek, and many not killed by the fall or burned up by the burning cars, were held down by the wreck and drowned before they could be extricated. Many, too, were frozen.

It is estimated that there were 175 passengers on the ill-fated train. At least one-half of these were killed or burned to death or frozen. The train was drawn by two engines, one engine having crossed the bridge, everything else went down.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hartz Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hartz's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO. #### BIG BEEF TRUST

Boston, Jan. 2—It is learned that Beef Trust begins 1904 with a gigantic beef trust with over $19,000,000. The new trust is without a name, but its basis is: North Packing and Provision company, $5,000,000; John H. Squire & Co., $5,000,000; Boston Packing and Provision company, $500,000. The merger was effected by an equal exchange of stock after the insolvent Squire company was secured by the Swift company. This completes the big combination which the National Packing company of Chicago has been working for with Swift & Co., Morris & Co. and Armour & Co. behind it.
The trust will connect all the beef packing business in New England.

New York's New Mayor.

New York, Jan. 2.—Col. George B. McClellan, who was elected mayor last November by an overwhelming Democratic vote, assumed the duties of his office at noon yesterday.

The ceremony for the transfer of the city government from fusion to Tammany was simple. Colonel McClellan arrived at the city hall a few minutes before 12 o'clock. He was escorted by private secretary O'Brien, and they went direct to the private office of Mayor Low. This formality over, Mayor Low retired from the room and from the building. Mayor McClellan then held a public reception.

JACKON DAY BANQUET

Program of the Event Has Been Completed--Five Responses to Toasts to be Made By Leading Democrats of the State.

Columbus, O., Jan. 2.—The official program for the Jackson day banquet in this city at the Great Southern hotel on the evening of January 8 has been completed. There will be responses to five formal toasts by as many distinguished Democrats from outside the city. The oratorical program will be limited to those toasts and there will be no local speakers. Hon. Ulric Sloan, of Columbus, will be the toastmaster. The topics of discussion and those who will discuss them are as follows:

"The Hour and Its Responsibilities," Hon. Charles I. York, of Port Clinton.

"The Trusts," Hon. John L. Zimmerman, of Springfield.

"Democracy," Hon. H. A. Daugherty, Lancaster.

"Tariffs at Home and Abroad," General E. B. Finley, of Bucyrus.

"The Day and the Man," Hon. Hal C. DeRan, of Upper Sandusky.

All indications point to a very successful function. There will be a large attendance of representative Democrats from all parts of the state. The banquet will be served at 8 o'clock in the evening, following a reception to the out-of-town guests.

DR. DUVALL

Will Begin His Series of Addresses in Taylor Hall, Y. M. C. A., Building Tomorrow.

Dr. T. G. Duvall, dean of Ohio Wesleyan University begins his series of addresses in the Men's Meeting at the Y. M. C. A., tomorrow. If the men of Newark would only know what a rare man the Y. M. C. A. has secured in Dr. Duvall there would be no empty seats in Taylor Hall any Sunday afternoon this month. He is not only a philosopher of keen intellect, but a man of deep spiritual insight into the great questions of life and religion. The fact that for eight successive Sundays he drew constantly increasing crowds to hear him in the Y. M. C. A. at Columbus is evidence enough of his attractions as a speaker. His first subject tomorrow will be "Tolerance."

In the musical program tomorrow which begins at 8 o'clock, Miss Elsie Hirschberg will sing "Abide With Me," by Little, and Hen B. Hoover, "The Unseen Land," by Horritz and Bowers.

How to Prevent Croup.

It will be good news to the mothers of small children to learn that croup can be prevented. The first sign of croup is hoarseness. A day or two before the attack the child becomes hoarse. This is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the rough cough appears, and it will dispel all symptoms of croup. In this way all danger and anxiety may be avoided. This remedy is used by many thousands of mothers and has never been known to fail. It is, in fact, the only remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists.

Francis B. Loomis, assistant secretary of state, who defended America's policy on the isthmus at the recent banquet of the Quill club in New York, made the startling statement that the recognition of the Panama republic headed off a plot that was hatched at Bogota to seize the canal concessions.

Mr. Loomis stated that certain men in Bogota wished to have the canal matter postponed a year, when the renewal of the concession of the French company would have been refused with the purpose of its confiscation and sale to the United States. Had this plan succeeded it would in all probability have resulted in the occupation of the isthmus by French troops.

Secretary Loomis is a native of Ohio and a diplomat of wide experience. He was minister to Venezuela from 1897 to 1901, when he was sent as envoy to Portugal. He was appointed assistant secretary of state last January.

which wrecked the Trenton, Nipise and Vandalia at Samoa in 1887 Deery jumped from the Trenton and with a line hauled a hawser ashore, saving many lives. Again, when the old Keats was wrecked on Roncador reef, he swam to land with a line, thus saving many of his shipmates.

RUNNING THE GANTLET

[Copyright, 1903, by C. B. Lewis.]

Joe Hall, one of the ablest government scouts that ever worked with the army against the Indians, had been captured by the Cheyennes between Forts Wallace and Lyon as he carried dispatches.

The tribe then had its headquarters on the Smoky hill fork of the Republican river. It was after dark when they reached the town, and Hall was tied hand and foot and placed in a tepee and four guards stationed around it. A small raiding party had that day captured a man belonging to the Seventh cavalry wagon train. The Cheyennes had determined not to spare man, woman or child who fell into their hands, but after a powwow lasting an hour the teamster was brought out, and Roman Nose said to him:

"We have captured the Flying Horse (Hall), and we want all white men to know it. They will not believe us, but they will believe you. Come and see him."

He was led to the tepee, and Hall admitted his identity and charged him with some farewell messages to friends. He also gave him the dispatches he was to deliver, or rather asked Roman Nose to do so, and the chief then said:

"That your white brothers may know you have been a captive in our hands we will send them our mark."

The chief thereupon sliced off both of the teamster's ears and banded them to him to put in his pocket. The director of Fort Wallace was pointed out, and he was given one of the stage horses and started off, reaching the post next forenoon.

There did not appear to be one chance in a hundred for Hall to escape, but the village had no sooner become quiet than he began to plan. He was so tricked up that it was impossible to free himself. He worked at his lashings for an hour or so and then gave up the attempt.

He knew the situation of the village and the country around it, and he finally decided that his opportunity would come next day when taken out to run the gantlet. No matter what the rest of the programme was, this portion or preface was never omitted. The Indians seemed to get more amusement out of it than any other part.

When morning came Hall's arms were cast loose, and he was provided with a hearty breakfast. The Indians knew he was game, and they wanted him to keep his full strength and last as long as possible. He had also an object in view and ate all they brought him.

It was about 9 o'clock when he was taken out to run the gantlet. All his lashings were cast off, a rope tied around his waist, and he was exercised for fifteen minutes to limber him up.

There were about 400 bucks in the lines as they were presently formed. In most instances the warriors are allowed to strike with clubs, the handles of tomahawks or hickory bows, but in this case only switches were used.

Hall was a swift runner, and his plan was to make a bolt as soon as he reached the west end of the line. To his chagrin he found a dozen mounted warriors placed to head off any such attempt. He made it, however. Running down the lines at the top of his speed and receiving a cut from almost every warrior as he passed, he broke out on the prairie and ran for his life.

The pursuing Indians could have killed him, but the idea was recapture. He got two full miles from camp and dodged them for an hour before this was accomplished. He was then made to pass up and down the lines four times, after which he was returned to the tepee for an hour's rest. Being stark naked, every blow of the switches had raised a welt, and he was scarred from head to heel.

The next move on the programme was to bind him to a tree and throw knives and tomahawks at him. The idea was to torture his mind, but some of the weapons slightly wounded him, and those who threw them were laughed at as bunglers. Hall won the admiration of all the warriors by his display of nerve during the trying ordeal.

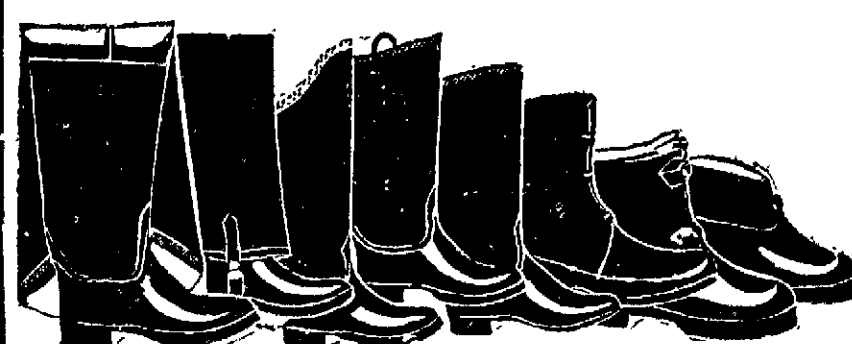

At noon he was taken back to the lodge and given another hearty meal and an hour later was brought out to be tied to the stake. Before this had been accomplished an old buffalo bull pursued by wolves dashed into the herd of ponies about half a mile away and started a panic and a stampede. There were 600 ponies in the herd, and they made straight for the village, and so sudden was the alarm that for the moment everybody was upset.

The general idea was that an attack was being made by the soldiers, and there was a rush in every direction for weapons.

Hall and his guards were knocked down like tenpins, but the instant he was free he rose up among the horses and ran with them, yelling to keep them going. He was carried along for a mile or more and then suddenly caught sight of his own mule.

She was as obedient to his whistle as a dog, and he was soon on her back. It was not until the herd had covered a distance of five miles that the panic subsided, and this gave Hall a long start. He was riding without saddle or bridle, but that was no trick for a scout. He headed for Fort Wallace, and, though pursued to within a mile of the post, he got in safely. His pursuers numbered fifty, and some of them urged their ponies to such speed that the animals dropped exhausted and were abandoned within sight of the fort.

LIVING BABY
TAKEN FROM THE DEAD WAGON
AT CHICAGO FIRE.

Doctor Detected Slight Pulse and Saved Child's Life—Only Member of the Family Saved.

Attorney Frank S. Walker of Columbus, whose wife was formerly Miss Sarah Barrick of this city, returned from Chicago Friday. He visited the ill-fated Iroquois theatre Thursday and heard many heartrending stories of the awful fire. One was told to him by Mr. Charles Brown. It was in regard to a little baby girl. The child had been carried from the theatre and with other bodies placed in the dead wagon. A physician standing nearby looked at the little body and felt its pulse. There was still a spark of life.
He resorted to artificial respiration,
breathing into the little one's mouth
and forcing the air from the lungs by pressure.

He wrapped it in a blanket, placed
it under his coat and hurried home.
The body was made with the exception of its underclothing which was of silk. The child was breathing but its condition was alarming. The doctor put it to bed and surrounded the little form with hot water bottles and administered stimulants. In the evening there came from beneath the cloth
a faint little cry.

In examining the clothing the doctor found a little locket on the child with its monogram. He looked over the list of dead and then investigated
the case. The mother and several relatives had been with the child but they perished and when the father, a Mr. Dee arrived from St. Louis the little child, the doctor had picked from the dead wagon, was the only member of his once happy family that was left.

ty. He also filled different offices of public trust in Newark, principally the

BLIZZARD
WITH SNOW AND WIND COMES TO TOWN.

Weather Bureau Gave Warning Friday
—Good Car Service in Spite of the Heavy Snow.

Newark was in the clasp of a genuine blizzard all day Saturday and many interests were impeded and in some cases for a time, practically suspended. The people generally had warning that the weather would become colder accompanied with snow,
in the announcement of the weather bureau, while in railroad circles the prophecy took the shape of a specified order to prepare for a blizzard. The transportation department of the B.
& O. was cautioned to have all power in shape for the cold and snow, so as to cause as little delay as possible from this cause. As far as this order applied locally, it was adhered to strictly and on the divisions centering in Newark there was no delay caused on account of lack of locomotive power supply.

The interurban line of course experienced great difficulty in getting over the road, but by dint of hard work trains were run nearly according to schedule. In fact the Granville car gave excellent service, and ran practically on time.

The service on the Newark city
lines was a subject of wonderment and much favorable comment from their patrons. It has never been approximately those encountered today.
This excellence was mainly due to the undefatigable vigilance and labor of General Manager J. R. Harrison, and Superintendent F. L. Mowery. The latter personally acted as motorman
on the big track super, and all day long he was running the huge machine over the different city divisions, keeping the tracks in such shape that the cars, although often late as was expected, gave really remarkable service.

The only delay experienced on the Interlake road was occasioned by the big fire in Columbus at Third and Rich streets, the cars running to the corner of Third and Mount streets.

Snow is predicted for tonight with a cold wave Sunday, followed by fair weather.

NEWARK
DEFEATED ZANESVILLE BOYS IN BASKET BALL.

Final Score Was 19 to 7—Newark Scored Within a Minute After the Game Started.

Zanesville, O., Jan. 2—A good audience witnessed the crushing defeat of the local All Stars basket ball team at the hands of the Newark High school in the armory New Year's evening. Many Newark rooters were on hand to cheer their boys on to victory.

Within a minute Newark had scored a goal and from that time on the locals never had a chance of winning.
Both the individual and team work of the visitors surpassed that of the Clay City boys, and when the first half was over the score stood Newark 11, All Stars 2.

The second half was more hotly contested than the first but in this part of the game the Newark lead in the number of goals. When the whistle blew for "time up" this was the story:
Newark 19, All Stars 7.
The line up:

NEWARK ELKS
ENTERTAINED THEIR FRIENDS
NEW YEAR'S NIGHT.

Hundreds Visited the Well Appointed Club Rooms and Each Received a Cordial Welcome.

The annual New Year's reception given by Newark Lodge of Elks at their elegant headquarters in the Oriel building, on the East Side of the public square, on Friday was a delightful success in every particular.
The hours of reception were from 4
to 10 p. m., and during that time there was a constant stream of guests coming and going to enjoy the elegant hospitality for which the Elks are so famous, and to wish the lodge and members a happy new year. Hundreds of invited guests called during those hours and the beautiful rooms decorated with flowers and potted plants, the men in dress suits and the ladies handsomely gowned in beautiful toilets, presented a delightful picture, enjoyable in the extreme, and not soon to be forgotten. After social greetings had been interchanged
the guests, as they successively arrived, were invited to partake of delicious refreshments, supplemented by libations from the punch bowls of liquids that cheered but not inebriated.
Marsh's orchestra furnished delightful music throughout the evening, which was interspersed by some choice vocal music and piano playing by various guests present. Exalted Ruler Phil B. Smythe, "Brownie," and the committee of arrangements were ubiquitous and too much credit cannot be given to the officers and committees of the lodge, and all the members participating for making the affair such a perfect and delightful social success.

FIREMAN
Should be Stationed on Stage and Fire
Escapes Put on the Y. M. C. A.
Building.

The suggestions made by the Advocate for the protection of the patrons of Taylor Hall and the Auditorium in case of fire, were acted upon with alacidity by the management of both halls,
and on New Year's day at both matinee and evening performance at the Auditorium the doors at the sides,
down stairs, and the doors to the fire
escapes in the balcony and gallery
were unlocked.

There is one other precaution that should be taken, and at once. At every performance one of the city firemen detailed by the chief, should be on the stage and every man employed there should be under this fireman's orders in preventing dangerous fires and in fighting them in case one should start. In the fixing of calcium or electric lights on the stage, the fire man should be instantly and implicitly obeyed in any suggestions he should make as to their location. This fireman should be clothed by the mayor,
or by ordinance with police power,
and if any attache of the theatre disobeys his orders, he should be arrested on the spot.

These stage managers and scene
shifters may be good men in a theatre
but they know absolutely nothing about fires and the methods of prevention and control.

The Y. M. C. A. trustees should be prevailed upon to put fire escapes up at Taylor Hall and make any other needed improvements for the protection of their patrons.

A Very Close Call.

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Ballany, a locomotive fireman of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale,
without any appetite and all run down.
As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and color from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by Frank D. Hall, Burlington. Price 50 cents.

A glass or two of water taken half an hour before breakfast will usually keep the bowels regular. Harsh cathartics should be avoided. When a purgative is needed, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets.
They are mild and gentle in their action. For sale by all druggists.

Prominent among the social events of the season was the New Year's reception given by the Ladies Aid Society, assisted by the social department of the Epworth League of the First Methodist church. The reception was held at the home of Rev. and Mrs. L. C. Sparks. A number of little girls dressed in white and looking dainty, opened the door, and escorted the guests to the dressing room, then they were formally received by Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Sparks and family. Assisting in the various rooms were many of the members of the society. The house was handsomely decorated with cut flowers and Christmas greens. Refreshments were served in the dining room, the table where the coffee was poured being decorated with carnations and smilax, and smilax was festooned from the chandelier to the corners of the table. As the guests left the dining room they were given bows of red ribbon as souvenirs. The reception was attended by a large number of guests, and was a most delightful affair.

to statements of patrons of the hotel, was for a time placed in a critical situation. He was ill in a room on the sixth floor, just across the hall from where the fire started. He was attended by his mother. Hearing the cries of fire Mrs. Jaques went out into the hall and sank down, overcome by the smoke and sudden fright. Hearing the cries of the child, Mrs. W. L. Jaques, the grandmother, ran into the room and carried the little one out, giving directions to the servants to look after the boy's mother.

A woman on the fourth floor, said to be a Mrs. Kendall, was ill with pneumonia and was carried to a place of greater safety.

While the fire was in progress many patrons leaned out of their windows and calmly watched the crowds. The origin of the fire is unknown.

On January 27, 1902, nearly 200 patrons of the Murray Hill were in their rooms at the time of the subway explosion. Six were killed outright and many were injured. The damage to the hotel property then was estimated at $1,000,000.

Consumption as Discussed by the Medical Profession.

When Prof. Hoff's now famous prescription for consumption was first brought to the notice of the medical fraternity in this country, after Professor Hoff had achieved fame in Europe because of his discovery, few of the American physicians received it with much enthusiasm. They imagined it might be an emulsion of cod-liver oil, or a creosote preparation, or an inhaling apparatus, or a gold cure, or one of the several other advertised "cures" whose claims have melted before every true test.

Since they have learned its true value and that it is not a patent medicine, but a scientific preparation made from a formula given by Professor Hoff for the benefit of sufferers, doctors, hospitals, sanitariums and medical journals are advocating its adoption in all cases of consumption.

There is an intimate association between TWO FACTS in connection with statistics on consumption. One fact is that the report shows the percentage of deaths from consumption is decreasing. The mortality rate fell from 245 for every 10,000 persons to 190 for every 10,000 persons.

The other fact is that this decrease all occurred since the American Bureau of the Hoff Cure began sending out its medicine.

The medicine is furnished to sufferers at a trifle over the cost of compounding it, without any fancy profit such as secret and patent medicines charge. This is due to the philanthropy of Professor Hoff, who said his great discovery belonged to mankind and not to any one individual simply because he made the discovery.

That is practical socialism.

It was the American Bureau of the Professor Hoff Cure which first mapped out the work of co-operation now being carried on broadcast and spreading from week to week all over the country.

Doctors, friends of the patients, druggists, relatives and kindly disposed people of all degrees are giving their help to make the work as general as possible, reaching every nook and cranny where consumption lurks.

There is an opportunity for every one to co-operate in the grand movement of wiping consumption, with its attendant miseries, from the face of the continent. There is no coupon book required—no interchange of money—simply a beginning and a continuing of a charitable work which requires only an effort on the part of each individual.

Get the promise of every member of your family to look over his or her acquaintances and select some one who has consumption or who seems in immediate danger of it. The chances are very largely in favor of the latter class having the disease. Let each member of the family send the name of the person so selected to The American Bureau, at 10th Street and Third Ave., New York, so that the literature with reference to the Hoff treatment may be forwarded gratis. The name of the person sending the name of the sufferer will not be divulged to the sufferer, for the American Bureau appreciates and respects the feeling of delicacy with which a consumptive regards his condition.

In many instances physicians have been converted by their patients who have taken Professor Hoff's cure unknown to their medical advisers, and to-day thousands of the best American doctors regard Professor Hoff's cure as an ethical preparation to be used in all cases of cough and especially where there is doubt in diagnosis.

These physicians speak for themselves and their words of commendation need no explanation:

American Bureau, Bendiner & Schlesinger, Third Avenue and 10th Street, N. Y.: Gentlemen—Enclosed find one dollar, for which send me one bottle of Professor Hoff's remedy. I have not yet asked anything of it that I did not bring about. Respectfully yours, A. W. GUILLEY, M. D., 418 Centre st., South Easton, Pa.

American Bureau, Bendiner & Schlesinger, Third Avenue and 10th Street, N. Y.: Gentlemen—I have had good success with your medicine. Yours truly, Dr. O. L. HUDSON, Princeton, Ind.

American Bureau, Bendiner & Schlesinger, Third Avenue and 10th Street, N. Y.: Gentlemen—Enclosed find money order for another bottle of Professor Hoff's Cure for Consumption. I find it is just what you recommend it to be. Yours truly, Dr. O. H. LEONHART, Lake Forest, Ill.

American Bureau, Bendiner & Schlesinger, Third Avenue and 10th Street, N. Y.: Dear Sirs—Please find $1.00 for which kindly send me another bottle of Professor Hoff's Consumption Cure. It is very satisfactory so far. I am using it on a case in the last stage of the disease. Its results are marvelous. While I did not expect a cure, the effect of the remedy is very marked on the general condition of the patient. Respectfully, DAVID RINNELS, M. D., Merrill, Wis.

American Bureau, Bendiner & Schlesinger, Third Avenue and 10th Street, N. Y.: Dear Sirs—Am in receipt of your last letter, and beg to state in answer that my patient has been entirely cured. The respiration has become normal, also, hardly is there a difference between the sound of the lungs on percussion. The sputum has disappeared. She has taken on much flesh. I think her cure positive. I have another case on hand, though further advanced. I have great confidence in the Hoff prescription when I can carefully direct my patient by treatment—diet, exercise, etc. Enclosed find $1.00 money order for more of the remedy. Please send same immediately. Yours, February 3, 1922, G. A. LEWIS, M. D., 131 Trinity ave., Weatherford, Tex.

American Bureau, Bendiner & Schlesinger, Third Avenue and 10th Street, N. Y.: Dear Sirs—I enclose two dollars for two bottles of Prof. Hoff's Cure for Consumption. My patient seems to be doing well, has gained nearly 15 pounds within the last three months. Yours truly, J. G. THOMAS, M. D., Lima, O.

American Bureau, Bendiner & Schlesinger, Third Avenue and 10th Street, N. Y.: The White Mt. Tuberculosis Sanatorium, N. H., is the finest private sanatorium of its kind in New England, and uses and endorses Prof. Hoff's Cure for Consumption. CLIFTON J. BAILEY, Supt. White Mt. Tuberculosis Sanatorium, No. Conway, N. H.

Professor Hoff desires his cure to be in the hands of every sufferer. It is humanity's medicine. The prescription is compounded in accordance with Prof. Hoff's directions and sent out by the American Bureau at Third Avenue and 10th Street, New York, at $1.00 per bottle. For greater convenience the remedy may be had at the same price from the well and favorably known firm mentioned below.

The triangular trade mark of the American Bureau of Professor Hoff's Cure must be on the label, and this is the guarantee to the purchaser that it is the exact prescription used by Prof. Hoff at Vienna.

A 64-page book, containing complete descriptive treatise on the Professor Hoff Cure, and accurate reports of several hundred cases, is mailed free on application or may be obtained by calling at these well known druggists.

IMPORTANT.—Other Hoff cures not bearing this triangular trade mark are not the authentic preparation authorized by the American Bureau. You can obtain the genuine Hoff Cure at most drug stores. The great body of honorable druggists do not stoop to substitution by selling something "just as good," but they means more profit for themselves. The genuine Hoff cure can always be procured of the well-known druggists.

A SUDDEN RETURN

Edgar Carroll went away to make his fortune. For three years he wrote to his betrothed, Irene Hayne, regularly. Then came a letter saying that he had made a fortune and was coming home. After that no more letters came, nor did Edgar Carroll. Irene's cheek grew paler and her step less elastic, and anxious friends began to shake their heads and hint of failing health. Her father became alarmed. Physicians counseled travel and change of air. The experiment was tried, but without perceptible benefit.

During the absence of Mr. Hayne and his daughter a stranger had taken up his abode in the place of their residence.

Who or what Mr. Newcome was or whence he came nobody pretended to know, yet every man, woman and child was ready to vouch for his respectability. He was a bachelor and lived alone, rarely appearing in society, yet often enough to avoid the appearance of shunning it.

His habits of seclusion were soon measurably abandoned. He was constantly meeting Irene, first by seeming accident at the houses of such friends as she was accustomed to visit, then by direct calls upon herself.

At one of these interviews the conversation turned upon Australia, where Mr. Newcome had spent some years. In the course of it he mentioned a name which caused Irene to start.

"Edgar—Edgar Carroll! You knew him, then?" she managed to say, with effort.

"He was my most intimate friend," replied Mr. Newcome, with seeming carelessness, at the same time scanning keenly her agitated face—"that is, until he married."

"It was considered a good match, I believe," Mr. Newcome added, pretending not to notice the effect of his words. "The lady was a wealthy colonist's daughter, an only child, and all that."

The blow fell with cruel force. For a moment Irene's faculties were stunned.

Some months later, when Irene's father hinted that Mr. Newcome had asked permission to become her suitor and that his own sanction had been already given, he was agreeably surprised at the manner in which the announcement was received.

By sacrificing herself she could save her father's fortune, and, for herself, what did it matter now?

It was the evening before the wedding day, and Mr. Newcome had called to pay his last visit as a wooer.

Irene's face was paler than usual, and her manner was more disturbed, but her father was in too high spirits and Mr. Newcome too polite to notice the change. They were in the midst of an agreeable chat when a visitor was announced, who insisted on seeing Mr. Hayne alone.

In no gracious mood Mr. Hayne passed into an adjacent apartment, where excited voices were soon heard.

At the sound of one of them both Irene and Mr. Newcome started to their feet.

"So the villain is here!" exclaimed Edgar Carroll, thrusting open the door. But Irene's white face met his angry gaze, and he stood motionless.

Newcome for the moment had believed himself in personal peril and had shrunk back coweringly, but a moment's reflection assured him that in the presence of Mr. Hayne and his daughter he had no cause for fear.

"In the distant land to which we had both gone in quest of gold this man and myself became friends. We shared the same tent and had no secrets from each other. In treasure seeking I proved the more fortunate of the two, and my gains had already reached the point I had proposed they should attain when my friend suggested a visit to some unexplored islands of which he pretended to have heard rumors and of whose wealth we might become the sole possessors.

"We fitted out a small vessel and after a voyage of several days anchored off a thickly wooded island. Leaving the crew on board, my friend and myself went ashore and began our search. In a secluded spot I was felled to the earth by a blow from behind and left for dead.

"On regaining consciousness I found myself alone. I ran to the shore, but the vessel was no longer in sight.

"One day I deserted a sail in the distance. The sight made me wild with joy. I shouted and signaled and by every means in my power sought to make my presence known.

"But still the ship held her course. Frantic with despair, I rushed into the waves, determined to swim toward her while strength held out, when at length she shortened sail, and I saw a boat lowered from her side.

"I conducted my deliverers to the treasure I had found. There was enough for us all. I returned to find myself robbed of my precious gains, whose place of concealment was known only to myself and him who had sought my life to get possession of them. But the less I regarded as a trifle. I was now the possessor of trouble and money."

Irene Carroll is a happy wife now and never happier than when listening to a chapter from the adventures of her own Robinson Crusoe.

In the crib.

"Fifteen two and a pair makes four," said Snibbels, who was playing cribbage with Popley. "What have you in your crib?"

"Ah," replied Popley absentmindedly, "just the sweetest little cooing tootsie girl in the world!"—Philadelphia Press

Miss Blanche J. Kelley of Providence, R. I., Was Restored to Health by Father John's Medicine.

Miss Blanche J. Kelley of 295 Pearl street, Providence, R. I., says: "Last summer I was overcome with chills. They affected my heart. I had several physicians and they claimed I had palpitation of the heart, and they claimed I had palpitation of the heart. None of them did me much good. About two years ago I had an operation performed. It was for abscess. The physicians claimed I would never have any more. One year from that date another one formed, but I never had that one removed. I tried a bottle of Father John's Medicine. When I started to take it, I only weighed 98 pounds. My weight at the present time is 135 pounds. I can not say enough in praise of your medicine. I had to give up my position as bookkeeper, but since I started to take Father John's Medicine I can attend to my business. I have a married sister who had several hemorrhages, and the physicians could not do anything to stop them. I sent her a bottle of your medicine and she has never had any more trouble with the hemorrhages. I have recommended it to a great many of my friends, who have tried it and found great benefit from it. I will always keep Father John's Medicine on hand. And can not say enough in praise of it." (Signed) Blanche J. Kelley.

Asking For the Impossible.

Miss Updegrave—But surely you must know whether you return my love. Think—think.

Cholly Shimsly—Oh, dear, I can't—I can't! I never tried to.

A Large Fish.

An Englishman visiting Lake Tahoe asked a native if there was any good fishing in the lake.

"Oh, yes, stranger."

"What kind of fish do you catch here?"

"Oh, all kinds, stranger."

"What is the weight of the largest fish you ever caught?"

"Well, stranger, we don't take weighing machines when we go fishing, and I am an honest man and wouldn't like to say how much that last trout I caught would weigh. But I tell you, stranger, that when I pulled that fish out of the water the lake went down a foot!"—Birmingham Post.

The Bright Side.

"After all," said the beautiful American heiress, "I don't see why we should feel bitter toward those princesses who are eloping with their music teachers and coachmen."

"Why, Alberta!" her friend exclaimed. "How can you possibly find any excuse for such conduct?"

"Well, you know, every time one of them runs away there's another title put on the market!"—Chicago Record-Herald.

GRIP CONVALESCENCE

There's nothing better than Scott's Emulsion after the grip. When the fever is gone the body is left weak and exhausted; the nervous system is completely run down and vitality is low.

Two things to do: give strength to the whole body and new force to the nerves. Scott's Emulsion will do it; contains just what the worn-out system needs.

Rich blood, healthy flesh, resistive force, more and better nourishment are what Scott's Emulsion supplies to the convalescent.

Scott's Emulsion is the original and has been the standard emulsion of cod liver oil for nearly thirty years. Why buy the new, untried, cheap emulsion or so called wines, cordials and extracts of cod liver oil, when you can buy what is sure to help you?

We'll send you a sample free upon request. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 1st Street, New York.

The SPORTING WORLD

Invincible Mike Egan.

Mike Egan, the world's champion handball player, who has just published an exhaustive and interesting treatise on this ancient game, stands in a class by himself. There is hardly a man in the world who can give him a real tussle.

After Egan had bested all the experts in this country he met and overwhelmingly defeated Tim Toubill, champion of Ireland. This victory clinched his claim to the title of champion of the world.

There seems to be little doubt that Egan will retire undefeated.

Wichita a Fast Track.

The talk that the track at Wichita, Kan., is far inferior to the average eastern tracks does not carry much force with those who remember that in the fall of 1899 Joe Patchen and John R. Gentry met in a race on it and that the pair of great stallions went the fastest race ever paced by them that season. Joe Patchen was the winner, and although he was not the horse he was two years before, when he made his record of 2:01 1/4, he paced the Wichita track in 2:03 and 2:02 1/4. In only one other race did Patchen beat 2:03 that season, and that was in New York, where he won a heat in 2:02 3/4. That performance alone would stamp the track on which Cresceus went his great mile as one of unusual excellence.

American Cue Experts in Paris.

Paris billiard academics are alive with American cue experts these days. No less than nine of the men who are well known to American lovers of the game are there. Among the new arrivals are Al Taylor, who while an amateur made his headquarters most of the time at a State street hall, Chicago; Sutton, the handsomest wonder, and Willie Hoppe, the boy prodigy. "The Wizard," Jake Schaefer, is dean of the colony, but all are doing well. The Frenchmen seem to like the American style, and they are making good and are satisfied with life in the French capital.

Snooker Pool.

Snooker pool is a new game that an English champion in pool and billiards is trying to introduce in this country. In London the game has become a popular fad in clubs and fashionable private houses and has already attracted much attention from players here.

The new game of snooker pool is played with the twelve balls used in ordinary English pool and the fifteen balls of pyramid pool in addition. On the English table of 12 by 6 feet the twenty-seven balls do not crowd the surface as on the ordinary American table.

Rockwell's Quick Wit.

A well known Harvard coach tells a good story of Rockwell, the Yale quarterback, which illustrates the little fellow's quick mind in an emergency. A back had cleared the opposing line, but was alone in the open and careening over on one side and bound to fall in a stride or two. Quick as a flash Rockwell came bounding along and, stooping under his mate's arm, righted him and helped him along yards before the play was stopped.

Good Turf Season For Whitney.

William C. Whitney leads the list of winning owners on the American turf for the season of 1923. Mr. Whitney's racers won $264,405.

The list of owners whose horses have won $100,000 or more includes fifty-five, who have won more than $1,000,000. Another million or more has been distributed among the remainder of the turfmen, about 400 in number.

Lucien Lyne to Stay Here.

Jokey Lucien Lyne, who rode James R. Keene's horses in England last season, will not return to Britain now that Mr. Keene has sold his English stable. Lyne is a clever rider. It is doubtful if this country has seen a better one in a long time. He will be a welcome addition to the riding forces next season.

A Versatile Athlete.

William J. Collins, the Philadelphia athlete, is becoming the J. Pierpont Morgan of Harvard athletics. Not content with being tennis champion, and on the football eleven, baseball player and track athlete, he is a star of the crimson hockey team.

SUMMIT NOTES

Summit Station, O., Jan. 2—Lafayette Looker, a well known farmer, living on the Jersey and Summit road, is lying dangerously ill at his home with catarrh of the stomach. Mr. Looker has never regained his health since he was so severely shocked by lightning a year ago last summer. It will be remembered that he was attending the horses in the stable when a bolt of lightning struck the barn, killed a hog and badly shocked Mr. Looker and the horse.

Marion Evans is suffering with a felon on one of his fingers.

Mrs. Alice Galling, former resident of this place, is spending a few days here with relatives and friends. Mrs. Galling says that she had a narrow escape from burning to death as she was standing in front of a hot stove engaged in combing her hair, she stooped down. Her hair coming in contact with the hot stove immediately ignited. She started to run, when her grandfather came into the room and catching her, threw a coat over her head, extinguishing the fire. Miss Cora escaped injury but lost a fine head of hair.

New Year's Day marked a period in the life of Col. and Mrs. I. N. Milburn at their home on Mink street, it being the occasion of their first family reunion, when all their family spent the day together, the first time for twelve years. Those there were Rev. U. S. Milburn of Courtland, N. Y., Edward Milburn of Chicago Junction, John Milburn of Columbia, and Mrs. Florence Converse of Plain City, O. Rev. U. S. Milburn says that he made the run from Courtland, N. Y., to Summit Station in 16 hours, a distance of nearly 600 miles. The Milburn family is well known in Licking and Franklin counties.

The patrons of the Summit Creamery company presented the butter makers of the creamery, Mr. Hines with a beautiful gold watch chain and charm on Christmas, as a token of their esteem and appreciation.

GOLDEN ROD
RECEPTION AND BANQUET HELD
FRIDAY NIGHT.
Pleasing Program Preceded the Banquet—Many Members and Their Wives Present.
The reception and banquet given by the drill team of Golden Rod Lodge,
A. O. U. W., of this city, to the members and wives and lady friends of the lodge, on Friday night, was a perfect success in every particular. The rooms of the lodge were crowded to their utmost capacity at the appointed hour, 8 o'clock, and the Solid Four orchestra furnished delightful music throughout the evening. An interesting program had been prepared for the entertainment of the visitors, consisting of a fine drill by Golden Rod's splendid team, together with acrobatic performances and fine impersonations,
followed by a number of illustrated songs, handsome pictures for which were thrown on a screen in the darkened room. At the conclusion of the program, which was heartily enjoyed by all, Judge E. M. P. Brister was called upon and made a brief and stirring address appropriate to the occasion.
Then followed an elegant banquet,
which was served liberally to all by the ladies of the lodge, and was in the best style for which Golden Rod lodge is famous. At the conclusion of the banquet the orchestra struck up a lively dancing tune, and dancing was indulged in until the second day of the New Year was ushered in. This was one of the most delightful and successful social functions of the many that Golden Rod lodge has already given.

ISBELL & CO.
Say Mr. Pullen Came to See Hoover,
But That Latter Had No Account
With Their Firm.
The Advocate is in receipt of a letter from Isbell & Co., of Chicago, corroborating the statement made in this paper, that Harry J. Hoover had the name of being a stock investor.
They say in the letter that Mr. Pullen is their traveling representative, and that Mr. Hoover had been recommended to him as an investor, and Pullen came to Newark to see the young bank cashier, without success.
The brokerage firm, however, wish to say that he was not one of their customers and did not speculate as one of their clients.
Isbell & Co. say "Mr. Hoover never had any connection with our firm in any manner whatsoever; he never carried an account with us nor do we know of any speculation which he made in the market."
The Advocate in a recent article referred to several trips Mr. Pullen made to Newark for the purpose of seeing Hoover and in that connection
a remark Mr. Pullen made at the Hotel Warden to the effect that Hoover had a reputation as a "plunger." Upon what Mr. Pullen based his statement is not known, but that he made the statement attributed to him there is no question.

GRANVILLE NEWS
Granville, O., Jan. 2.—Friday afternoon a number of Granville young ladies entertained their young gentlemen friends at the homes of the Misses Colwell, Ferguson and Thornton from 2 to 5 o'clock. Assisting the Misses Colwell were the Misses Ruth McKibbin, Janet Jones, Faye Marlowe
and Anna Rhodes. Those assisting the Misses Ferguson were Misses Stelia Moore, Mabel Butterfield, and Eleanor Chaffee. Those assisting the Misses Thornton were the Misses Husted, Tuttle and Harford. At each house light refreshments were served and the first afternoon of the new year passed away rapidly and enjoyably to those participating.
The Misses Edith Work and Hattie Rogers entertained very delightfully a number of their friends with a New Year's party at the home of Miss
Work on Friday evening.
Despondency is the chief cause of sudden and business losses are more recent factors in driving individuals to commissions of rash deeds than in health, insanity, disappointment in love, or strong drink.

AT Y. M. C. A.

NEW YEAR'S RECEPTION WAS A BIG SUCCESS.

Program Ended in Evening With Mrs.
Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch, in Taylor Hall.

New Year's day was appropriately celebrated at the Y. M. C. A. building, where open house was kept all afternoon and evening. In point of attendance and social interest it was the most successful undertaking ever carried out by the local association.
From 2 o'clock until the evening entertainment, there had been over 600 young men to visit the rooms, and as the evening audience was considerably over 600, it meant that over 1000 people had been entertained during the afternoon and evening.
The afternoon was devoted to music,
a calendar display and an exhibit of Mr. Clarence H. White's incomparable photographic work being the principal features. Mr. U. G. Perrill impersonator, and Harry Payne, tenor, also contributed to the afternoon's pleasure.
Athletic exhibitions were followed by a supper served to nearly 200, and the management desire to thank the half hundred ladies for their work in making this feature a success, as well as for donations.
The evening witnessed a most creditable performance of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," given by the Sunshine Circle of King's Daughters,
the characters being taken with splendid success by the following local talent:
Mrs. Wiggs, Grace Gorby.
Asia Wiggs, Iva Morgan.
Australia Wiggs, Bess Glenn.
Europeana Wiggs, Katherine Suter.
Miss Hazy, Clara McDonald.
Mrs. Eichorn, Mabel Whitecamp.
Miss Bell, Kate Sparks.
Lovey Mary, Myrtle Snyder.
Miss Lucy Olcott, Maud Mitchell.
Asylum Girls, Lillian Miller, Lulu
Fletcher.
Rosie Krasmier, Bess Laird.
Wilhelmina Schultz, Grace Varner.
Jimmy Wiggs, Louis Myers.
Billy Wiggs, Louis Myer.
Chris Hazy, Fred Fulton.
Jake Schultz, W. J. Graef.
Tommy, Ralph Morrow.
Sunday School Superintendent, W.
E. Painter.
Every one of these young men and women did excellent work but that of Miss Grace Gorby, Clara McDonald
and Myrtle Snyder, and Mr. W. J.
Graef is worthy of especial mention.
The entire affair was one which reflects great credit upon Secretary A.
A. Ebersole and his assistants, and will long be remembered by those who attended.

SLEIGH
In Which Dr. Chas. A. Hatch and Son
Were Riding Overturned—
Neither Hurt.
While turning the corner at Roe
Emerson's this morning at 9:30 o'clock
the sleigh in which rode Dr. C. A.
Hatch and his son Clark, was overturned in crossing the car tracks, and both men were thrown out, but neither was hurt owing to the quick action of Mr. Clark Hatch, who was at the horse's head in a flash and although the animal for a while reared and plunged desperately, the young man gamely fought him down, and getting into the sleigh they drove away.
